Dear Parents / Carers,

Re: Coronavirus

As the Headteacher of this very special school myself, staff and governors want to help ensure our pupils and families remain as healthy and safe as possible.

The government guidance issued today states, "every child who can safely be cared for at home should be."

We are therefore saying that if your child can stay safely at home they do not attend school until further notice.

The government has asked schools to remain open only for those children who absolutely need to attend. Therefore Red Marsh School will remain open for these pupils only.

Yours sincerely,

Catherine Dellow

Head Teacher
