

AMAZING

Every day we are proud of the many achievements of all our pupils. Our pupils work hard to achieve their personalised targets delivered through our inclusive, broad balanced and stimulating curriculum.

We hope you enjoy looking at some of the amazing individual and group achievements our pupils have worked so hard to master. We are proud of you all.

Tolerating wearing a school jumper.

With support floating on their back in the swimming pool.

Copying an adult to name food from the Hungry Caterpillar

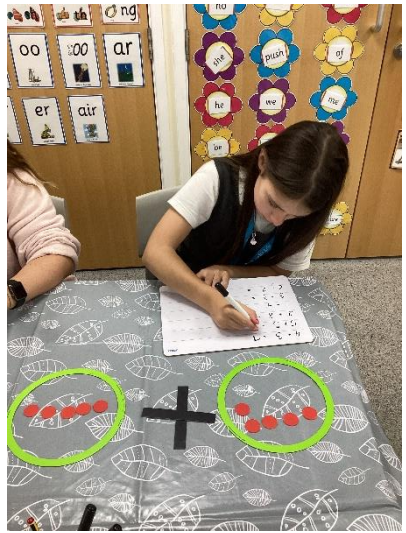

Learning to move across the school hall using both feet with the support of a walker

Ordering Number's to 3

This term it has been lovely to see our pupils' amazing achievements celebrated in the community.

Sixth Form pupils have developed their hockey skills in the local sports centre.

Senior students performed, at the Grand Theatre, as part of the Royal Shakespeare Company, in a production of 'The Tempest'.

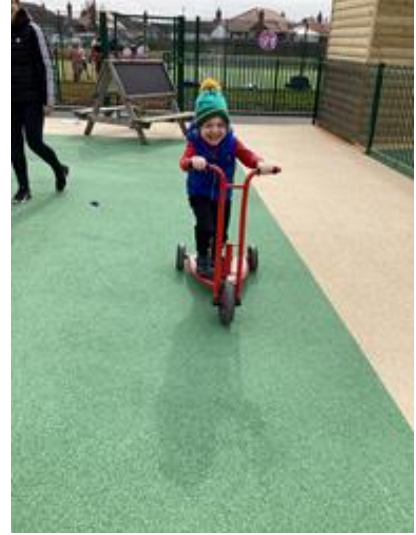

Our school choir performed at the Winter Gardens as part of the Celebration of Music 2025.

We had a wonderful time celebrating World Book Day. This year's World Book Day theme was 'Little People, Big Dreams.' Each class learnt about a different inspirational figure who had a 'big dream.'

Thank you to all the parents who purchased books through our Scholastic Book Fair.

We had lots of fun taking part in physical activities and challenges with our friends for Red Nose Day. We raised a massive £991.21 Thank you for your support.
